BURGLARY OF A HABITATION

On July 26, 2007 at approximately 1:00 p.m., Plano Police Officers responded to a possible Burglary in progress in the 5200 block of Creekpoint Drive. Call notes indicated that the homeowners returned to find their back door open and believed that the suspects were still inside the residence.

Upon Officers arrival, two subjects fled the residence on foot. Following a short foot pursuit both subjects were apprehended. The suspects were taken into custody for Burglary of a Habitation and were transported to the Plano City Jail.

The suspects have been identified as Nicholas K. Randolph, an 18-year old white male from Frisco, Texas and Justin Archuleta, an 18-year old white male from Plano, Texas.

This investigation is currently on-going.
